Do you conduct a junior instructional program now; if so, how many weeks a year does the program run? _____ Cost to parent for camp $ _____

As part of continuing education and growth of the game initiatives, the SCJGF is offering a limited number of grants for SCGA Member Clubs for the purpose of conducting Junior Golf Summer Camps for the 2018 season. Fees should be charged in accordance with your normal pricing guidelines for camps and a recommended range should be in the $5-$10 per instructional hour.

As part of your existing junior program, the SCJGF would like to enhance the educational process by providing Grant's (typically $1500 total or $500 per week) for expenses to SCGA Member Clubs for:

- Equipment necessary to expand junior golf education and development
- Provide employment for counselors/interns to assist staff professionals
- Fund food and beverage and/or travel needs for programs
- Provide access and on course instruction for juniors

The program would consist of:

- Summer length (6-12 weeks) program working into facility and staff schedule
- Introductory and skill based instruction, etiquette and rules education, on-course learning opportunities and counseling

The SCJGF would in return require:

- A final program report and documentation tracking number of juniors – including email addresses of participants, etc...
- A financial statement for monies spent
- An opportunity to have an “open house gathering” with members of the club to showcase all of the programs of the SCJGA and SCJGF
- All of the above – NO LATER THAN October 1, 2018.
- **Failure to comply with any of the above will result in your club not being considered for future grant opportunities.****
